2022 Gender Pay Gap Report

Introduction

We are pleased to present the 2022 Gender Pay Gap report for XPO Transport Solutions UK.

The actions we have taken continue to improve our gender pay year-on-year. There is still opportunities to improve and we remain committed to taking the steps necessary to ensure our organisation is equitable to all our team members.

Employing a diverse workforce, beyond gender, creates the foundation for a stronger business and we actively encourage individuals from different backgrounds to join our team. In 2022 we were awarded the Silver Military Covenant, in recognition of our commitment to providing support to veterans and reservists. We also continued to develop our Disability Confident journey, by obtaining Disability Confident Level 1 certification, which will support the recruitment, retention and development of less-able colleagues. In addition, we have expanded our partnership with DSWorkfit to provide fully paid work to people with Downs Syndrome.

Our priority is to provide a safe and inclusive environment for our colleagues to thrive in, regardless of their individual differences. Everyone is welcome at XPO.

“We recognise that we have an important part to play in helping the industry better represent our community. We know that this change won’t happen overnight, but by putting our values at the heart of everything we do and continuing to act to embed these across every element of our business, we are confident that progress will continue to be made.”

Lynn Brown Vice President, Human Resources

Gender Pay Gap

Bonus Pay Gap

Our mean 2022 gender pay gap is -2.3%, demonstrating that women received a slightly higher mean pay than men. And our bonus pay gap highlights that females received a higher mean and median bonus than males. The significant shift in bonus is due to some changes in our driver pay structure, the majority of which are male.

Pay Quartiles

The percentages of females in the lower and lower middle quartiles have reduced, positively the portion of females in the upper middle quartile has increased.

Bonus Participation

% of females receiving a bonus

% of males receiving a bonus

In our overall business, we have a higher proportion of male employees to females, which puts more males in a position to be eligible for a potential bonus. However, we are proud to say that the proportion of females receiving a bonus continues to grow.
