

XPO LOGISTICS ANNOUNCES SPRING 2018 GENERAL RATE INCREASE FOR LESS-THAN-TRUCKLOAD SERVICE

Greenwich, Conn. | February 14, 2018

XPO Logistics (NYSE: XPO) today announced that it will implement a general rate increase averaging 5.9%, applicable to non-contractual less-than-truckload (LTL) transactions, effective March 5, 2018.

The rate increase goes into effect for customers on the company's tariff programs. It will apply to general LTL rates (including Broker), minimum charges for LTL shipments moving within the United States and Canada, cross-border shipments moving between the United States, Puerto Rico and Canada, and the domestic U.S. portion of shipments into Mexico.

The company will also adjust accessorial pricing in accordance with market competitiveness.

Once effective, the new rates can be viewed online at the XPO customer portal, LTL.XPO.com.
