

We take a zero-fail approach to meeting critical deadlines through ground transportation, air charter and TMS technology.

XPO is the largest manager of expedite shipments in North America. We have decades of experience and deep capacity to make sure that your urgent freight is picked up and delivered on schedule, within tight timeframes and on short notice. Our expedite team can assign your load to a vehicle or aircraft, or enter it for bid in our transportation management system—the industry’s largest expedite TMS—where carrier sourcing takes less than 24 minutes on average.

Supply chain disruptions are frustrating, costly and almost impossible to solve on your own. For that, you need the expedite resources of XPO.
