

Cutting edge technology, real-time visibility, single point of accountability. XPO makes shipping easy.

XPO is the second largest freight brokerage firm in North America, with an expansive network of branches that includes Mexico-based operations. We have approximately 7,000 trucks under contract for drayage, expedite and last mile, and carrier relationships representing another 1 million trucks. But it's our service infrastructure that turns these numbers into on-time pickups and deliveries: our major capacity management hubs in Atlanta, Charlotte and Chicago; strategic account managers that understand large companies; and technology that gives us a bird's eye view of lanes, pricing and market conditions in seconds.

Freight Brokerage solutions and service

Many shippers, particularly large companies, find it reassuring to have XPO at hand for truckload, LTL, expedite, drayage and heavy haul. That's because truck-finding can be a serious challenge for shippers, making it more difficult to secure the optimal equipment and price. XPO has your solutions:

Deep and growing capacity. By drawing on multiple layers of capacity, we have the resources to find you trucks when others can't. We have thousands of contracted carriers and owner-operators under our authority.

Passionate about on-time. Ultimately it's our fierce commitment to world-class service that turns trucks into solutions for you. We take a do-or-die approach to on-time performance, and execute for follow-through and communication.

Rigorous standards for carriers. We use automated updates to monitor safety ratings, insurance qualifications and operating authorities in real-time.

Integrated services, one point of contact. We can easily provide you with integrated services for the other links in your supply chain, including intermodal, expedite, air charter, last mile, supply chain solutions and global forwarding—all through one point of accountability.

FREIGHT OPTIMIZER TECHNOLOGY

We believe that technology can truly revolutionize how goods are shipped, and we're committed to expanding the cutting-edge systems that already serve our customers. You can benefit immediately from:

- Algorithms, pricing tools and market analytics that identify the most efficient transportation options
- A comprehensive carrier rating engine and detailed scorecard
- Truck capacity information weighted by cost and performance to speed procurement
- Dynamic load optimization for transactional shipments to determine truckload, LTL or intermodal
- Robust track and trace technology that informs customer communications
- Customer-specific business rules to manage carrier assignment, routing and execution
- Expert integration with your company's systems through EDI or web
- Secure, online customer portal capabilities for booking, tracking, and carrier pricing visibility
